Cultivating Democracy Mukulika Banerjee, 2021-09-17 Mukulika Banerjee focuses on both India's institutional form and its democratic culture arguing that the project of democracy is incomplete unless it is accompanied by a continual cultivation of active republican citizenship Covering the period from 1998-2013 Cultivating Democracy provides an anthropological analysis of the relationship of formal political democracy and the cultivation of active citizenship in a rural setting in India Banerjee's analysis shows how India's agrarian village society produces the social imaginaries required for democratic and republican values More broadly she shows that democracy is not simply a product of institutional design but also requires continual civic cultivation by both parties and the citizens themselves     The Classical Weekly ,1924     The Classical World ,1910     Classical Weekly ,1915     The Evolution of the College Student (Classic Reprint) William Dewitt Hyde,2015-09-27 Excerpt from The Evolution of the College Student The college student is a being of infinitely complex and swiftly shifting phases which external description is powerless to catch and reproduce The only way to portray his deeper nature is to place him in intimate and confidential relations and let him give himself away This kinetoscopic picture is presented in the hope that it may assure over anxious parents that not every aberration of their sons is either final or fatal persuade critics of college administration that our problem is not so simple as they seem to think and inspire the public with the conviction cherished by every college officer that college students with all their faults and follies are the best fellows in the world and that notwithstanding much crude speculation about things human and some honest scepticism concerning things divine the great social institutions of family and industry and church and state may be safely intrusted to their true hearts and generous hands This sketch was drawn for the University Club of Buffalo in response to a request for something which would show the graduate the inner life of the college of to day Under the title His College Life it was published in Scribner s Magazine for June 1896 and it is through the kind courtesy of Charles Scribner s Sons that it appears in its present form About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works     Trafficking with Demons Martha Rampton,2022-01-15 Trafficking with Demons explores how magic was perceived practiced and prohibited in western Europe during the first millennium CE Through the overlapping frameworks of religion ritual and gender Martha Rampton connects early Christian reckonings with pagan magic to later doctrines and dogmas Challenging established views on the role of women in ritual magic during this period Rampton provides a new narrative of the ways in which magic was embedded within the foundational assumptions of western European society informing how people understood the cosmos divinity and their own Christian faith As Rampton shows throughout the first Christian millennium magic was thought to play a natural role within the functioning of the universe and existed within a rational cosmos hierarchically arranged according to a great chain of being Trafficking with the demons of the lower air was the essence of magic Interactions with those demons occurred both in highly formalistic ritual settings and on a routine and casual basis Rampton tracks the competition between pagan magic and Christian belief from the first century CE when it was fiercest through the early Middle Ages as atavistic forms of magic mutated and found sanctuary in the daily habits of the converted peoples and new paganisms entered Europe with their own forms of magic By the year 1000 she concludes many forms of magic had been tamed and were by the reckoning of the elite essentially ineffective as were the women who practiced it and the rituals that attended it    Social Life in Northwest Alaska Ernest S.
