In Flanders Fields

About the poem

The Flanders poppy is also called the "Flanders poppy" because of how and it was common in the location during the campaign. The poem was written throughout the spring, and was published when the poem was

About the poet

In Flanders Fields was written on a page that was torn from a notebook and kept in a box at the front of the line. The author was the first to be killed in the war, and the poem was written after the war.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies grow

Between the crosses, row on row,

That mark our place and in the sky

The larks, still bravely singing, fly

Scattered about the grassy field.

We are the dead, but we sleep deep

We look, but there, our work is done

Sowed, and won the battle, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take us our quiet with the foe

To you from falling heads we throw

The heads, for you to hold it tight.

If ye have faith with us who die

We shall not sleep

Though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.
