Freddy's Down

Freddy the Frog had a big frown.
"Hey Freddy, what's got you down?"
"I want some fruit," is what Freddy said.
"I want my freckles to turn bright red."
"Oh now Freddy, don't you fret,
You are still my favorite pet."

Cleaning the Attic

I told my brother Paul
the attic is messy to a fault.
We took out the trash and had to haul
a dirty old vault and a box of salt.
Paul used to think the attic was haunted,
but he had to clean so he was undaunted.
When we were all done, we took a jaunt,
to see our uncle and our aunt.

Little Cub

The little brown cub got his favorite toy sub.
He jumped right in to the bubbly tub.
He got a cloth and began to rub,
and gave his ears a nice, good scrub.

The Lab

Look a cab to the lab.
And on the way,
I saw a crab.
Its shell was drab,
and it liked to gab.
And on its knee, it had a scab.

The Truck

A big truck drove up the street.
It made a very loud sound.
The sound was pretty neat.
It even shook the ground.
I could feel it move under my feet.
There were lots of people around.
Then, finally it pushed some peat into a great big mound.

Socially Sustainable Neighbourhood Design for Children and Youth Parisa Ziaesaeidi, 2025-09-05 Socially Sustainable Neighbourhood Design for Children and Youth explores social sustainability in neighbourhood design with a particular focus on providing practical design recommendations to improve the lives of children and youth. This book provides insights from research as well as practical, actionable design principles and strategies to create inclusive, child and youth-friendly environments that foster social connections and community engagement. The book strongly emphasises how vibrant, engaged communities are linked to equity and long-term social and environmental sustainability. It explores how children and youth perceive social sustainability and the behavioural settings that support it. It outlines design principles and recommendations useful for creating spaces that prioritise their wellbeing and development both as individuals and as community members. By addressing the unique needs and perspectives of young people, the book empowers urban professionals to develop neighbourhoods that are socially sustainable, inclusive, and resilient. It also touches on important topics like decolonisation, post-colonialism in design, co-design principles, and democratic design approaches and evaluates how current urban planning practices impact the design of spaces for young people. This book is an essential resource for urban planners, designers, architects, and landscape professionals who are committed to designing neighbourhoods that foster social connection, inclusivity, and sustainable community life, especially through meaningful children and youth engagement.
