Reporting on elections

Council of Europe,2016-08-01 Elections are a pre condition for democratic governance since it is through them that the citizens of a country choose freely and on the basis of the law the persons that can legitimately govern in their name and in their interest The right to free elections as enshrined in the Article 3 of the Protocol to the European Convention on Human Rights is a fundamental principle in a truly democratic political regime It comprises a series of safeguards and procedures that ensure respect for active and passive electoral rights and the conduct of genuine free and fair elections Civil society has a distinct role to play since it observes the electoral process and contributes to the development of national electoral procedures through advice and recommendations The Council of Europe handbook Reporting on elections aims to help observers become more efficient and to produce more effective reports specifically focusing on the reporting of core team members At the same time it also covers the reporting of long and short term observers It deals mainly with final election reports and reports statements on preliminary findings while also providing insight into interim reports and ideas for ad hoc reports and press releases in addition to tips on how to follow up on recommendations

The Fragmented Landscape of Fundamental Rights Protection in Europe Lorenza Violini,Antonia Baraggia,2018-10-26 The composite nature of the EU constitutional legal framework and the presence of different fundamental rights protection actors within the European landscape presents a complex and fragmented scenario in search of a coherent structure This discerning book provides a thorough analysis and offers a unique perspective on the future of fundamental rights protection in Europe With engaging contributions from both scholars and practitioners the chapters consider not only the role of judicial actors but also the increasing relevance of non judicial bodies including agencies national human rights institutions the Venice Commission and equality bodies The contributors cover the different features and implications of judicial and non judicial bodies at national supranational and institutional level paying close attention to their interaction and the ways in which each have a role to play in a comprehensive fundamental rights policy Particular attention is paid to both the individual dimension of rights protection and the systemic dimension of rights monitoring and advisory which have been largely overlooked in previous studies Taking account of both theory and practice this book will be a valuable resource to legal scholars in the fields of human rights protection constitutional law and EU law Members of national and supranational human rights organizations will also find this a valuable tool in discovering more about the legal foundations of their work Contributors include M Avbelj A Baraggia F Fabbrini M E Gennusa S Granata S Imamovic K Meuwissen S Menghini S Ninatti O Pollicino C Rauchegger L P Vanoni L Violini Schwann-2, Record & Tape Guide, 1982 The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Assembly Abu El-Haj, Oxford Handbooks, Michael Hamilton, Thomas Probert, Sharath Srinivasan, 2025 The Oxford Handbook of Peaceful Assembly brings together a diverse and multidisciplinary range of experts to provide a critical international overview of the topic It breaks new ground by interrogating key dilemmas relating to the value scope and legal protection of peaceful assembly offering critically needed analysis on assembly qua assembly The UKMARC Manual A.
