

"What are you doing in North Carolina?" Jeremy asks.

"William and I have a place here." Her eyes move back to me, and she studies my face for a moment. "What are you two doing here?" she asks, giving her focused attention back to Jeremy. "Is this where you ran off to after selling the Vermont house? We were all so curious." The way her eyes travel back to me accusingly makes it clear what she's implying.

"We're just visiting," Jeremy says with a believable lie. "Vacation."

Patricia nods, then motions toward Nova. "You failed to mention at the funeral that you were going to be a father again."

An obvious dig now that she's done the math. Jeremy says nothing. He grips tighter at my waist, as if he's needing my support to keep him from saying something he shouldn't. He bites his tongue for several seconds. Then, "It was good to see you," he says, clearing space for her to exit.

Patricia forces a smile, but I can see the nervousness begin to seep in, as if she's realizing she happened upon something she should have walked straight past. She takes a step back, staring another moment before she says, "Yes. Good to see you." She looks down at Crew. "And you, Crew." She looks at me with a firm jaw, saying nothing as she spins and begins to walk away.

Jeremy doesn't move a muscle. He waits and watches her. She pulls on her dog's leash, urging it away from our area while looking back over her shoulder for one final, nervous glance.

Jeremy still has his arm around me when he whispers, "I need you to take Crew to the car."
