Coloring Book-Civil War Flags Bellerophon Books, Whitney Smith, 1992-10      A Coloring Book of Civil War Flags Whitney Smith, 1983      Civil War Flags of Tennessee Stephen Douglas Cox, 2024-01-12 Civil War Flags of Tennessee provides information on all known Confederate and Union flags of the state and showcases the Civil War flag collection of the Tennessee State Museum This volume is organized into three parts Part 1 includes interpretive essays by scholars such as Greg Biggs Robert B Bradley Howard Michael Madaus and Fonda Ghiardi Thomsen that address how flags were used in the Civil War their general history their makers and preservation issues among other themes Part 2 is a catalogue of Tennessee Confederate flags Part 3 is a catalogue of Tennessee Union flags The catalogues present a collection of some 200 identified extant Civil War flags and another 300 flags that are known through secondary and archival sources all of which are exhaustively documented Appendices follow the two catalogue sections and include detailed information on several Confederate and Union flags associated with the states of Mississippi North Carolina and Indiana that are also contained in the Tennessee State Museum collection Complete with nearly 300 color illustrations and meticulous notes on textiles and preservation efforts this volume is much more than an encyclopedic log of Tennessee related Civil War flags Stephen Cox and his team also weave the history behind the flags throughout the catalogues including the stories of the women who stitched them the regiments that bore them and the soldiers and bearers who served under them and carried them Civil War Flags of Tennessee is an eloquent hybrid between guidebook and chronicle and the scholar the Civil War enthusiast and the general reader will all enjoy what can be found in its pages Unprecedented in its variety and depth Cox s work fills an important historiographical void within the greater context of the American Civil War This text demonstrates the importance of Tennessee state heritage and the value of public history reminding readers that each generation has the honor and responsibility of learning from and preserving the history that has shaped us all and in doing so honoring the lives of the soldiers and civilians who sacrificed and persevered      A Descriptive List of the Confederate Flags in the Possession of the State Historical Society of Iowa ,1918      The Photographic History of the Civil War ,1911      The Photographic History of the Civil War: Songs of the war days Francis Trevelyan Miller, Robert Sampson Lanier, 1911      The Photographic History of the Civil War ...: Poetry and eloquence of Blue and Gray Francis Trevelyan Miller, 1911      History of the Flag of the United States of America George Henry Preble, 1880      Honoring the Civil War Dead John R. Neff, 2005 In his estimation Northerners were just as active as Southerners in myth making after the war Crafting a Cause Victorious myth that was every bit as resonant and powerful as the much better known Lost Cause myth cherished by Southerners the North asserted through commemorations the existence of a loyal and reunified nation long before it was actually a fact Neff reveals that as Northerners and Southerners honored their separate dead they did so in ways that underscore the limits of reconciliation between Union and Confederate veterans whose mutual animosities lingered

for many decades after the end of the war Ultimately Neff argues that the process of reunion and reconciliation that has been so much the focus of recent literature either neglects or dismisses the persistent reluctance of both Northerners and Southerners to forgive and forget especially where their dead were concerned Memorial Day Annual ,1911
