2025 Edition Viral Fantasy Saga:

The Future as Catastrophe Eva Horn, 2018-09-18 Why do we have the constant feeling that disaster is looming Beyond the images of atomic apocalypse that have haunted us for decades we are dazzled now by an array of possible catastrophe scenarios climate change financial crises environmental disasters technological meltdowns perennial subjects of literature film popular culture and political debate Is this preoccupation with catastrophe questionable alarmism or complacent passivity Or are there certain truths that can be revealed only in apocalypse In The Future as Catastrophe Eva Horn offers a novel critique of the modern fascination with disaster which she treats as a symptom of our relationship to the future Analyzing the catastrophic imaginary from its cultural and historical roots in Romanticism and the figure of the Last Man through the narratives of climatic cataclysm and the Cold War's apocalyptic sublime to the contemporary popularity of disaster fiction and end of the world blockbusters Horn argues that apocalypse always haunts the modern idea of a future that can be anticipated and planned Considering works by Lord Byron J G Ballard and Cormac McCarthy and films such as 12 Monkeys and Minority Report alongside scientific scenarios and political metaphors she analyzes catastrophic thought experiments and the question of survival the choices legitimized by imagined states of exception and the contradictions inherent in preventative measures taken in the name of technical safety or political security What makes today's obsession different from previous epochs is the sense of a catastrophe without event a stealthily creeping process of disintegration Ultimately Horn argues imagined catastrophes offer us intellectual tools that can render a future shadowed with apocalyptic possibilities affectively epistemologically and politically accessible
