Blueprint ,2008 Open Admissions Danica Savonick,2024-07-05 In Open Admissions Danica Savonick traces the largely untold story of the teaching experience of Toni Cade Bambara June Jordan Audre Lorde and Adrienne Rich at the City University of New York cuny in the late 1960s and early 1970s This period during which cuny guaranteed tuition free admission to every city high school graduate was one of the most controversial in US educational history Analyzing their archival teaching materials syllabi lesson plans and assignments alongside their published work Savonick reveals how these renowned writers were also transformative educators who developed creative methods of teaching their students to navigate and change the world In fact many of their methods such as student led courses collaborative public projects and the publication of student writing anticipated the kinds of student centered and antiracist pedagogies that have become popular in recent years In addition to recovering the pedagogical legacy of these writers Savonick shows how teaching in cuny s free and open classrooms fundamentally altered their writing and with it the course of American literature and feminist criticism

Gangs in America's Communities James C. Howell,2012 This book provides a comprehensive up to date and theoretically grounded approach to gangs and youth violence It covers significant topics of interest to gang scholars and practitioners and in doing so serves to prepare students to work with gang members develop and manage anti gang programs or engage in scholarly endeavors The book introduces readers to the foundations of gang studies through the origins of gangs definitions and categories of youth street gangs and the distinctions between these arguably different types national and international trends distinguishing features of serious street gangs what works with gangs and what doesn t and myths and realities James Howell s extensive experience in this area allows access to the most authoritative national survey data on gang trends providing insight into topics such as female gangs migration of gang members small town gangs versus the major adult gangs in large cities gang homicides and drug trafficking Black Newspapers Index ,2006

Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice Matthew Butcher,Megan O'Shea,2020-11-27 Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice presents a selection of essays architectural experiments and works that explore the diversity within the fields of contemporary architectural practice and discourse Specific in this selection is the question of how and why architecture can and should manifest in a critical and reflective capacity as well as to examine how the discipline currently resonates with contemporary art practice It does so by reflecting on the first 10 years of the architectural journal P E A R 2009 to 2019 The volume argues that the initial aims of the journal to explore and celebrate the myriad forms through which architecture can exist are now more relevant than ever to contemporary architectural discourse and practice Included in the volume are architectural practitioners design researchers artists architectural theorists historians journalists curators and a paleobiologist all of whom contributed to the first seven issues of the journal Here they provide a unique presentation of architectural discourse and practice that seeks to test new ground while forming distinct relationships to recent and more
