Media Sensation Post Apocalyptic Story:

Seriality in the Streaming Era Lene Heiselberg,Bo Kampmann Walther,Jakob Isak Nielsen,Rasmus Rønlev,2025-09-12 Seriality in the Streaming Era explores the dynamic transformation of serialized storytelling in the digital era where platforms like Netflix Disney and Apple Podcasts have redefined how narratives are created consumed and experienced This book examines the profound impact of streaming technologies on both fictional and nonfictional series offering an in depth analysis of how these formats have evolved Drawing from case studies across a wide range of media from television to podcasts and social media platforms like Facebook and Snapchat this book highlights how serialized storytelling has adapted to diverse formats and consumption habits The authors explore key trends such as platform specific narrative structures audience engagement and the blending of genres in both entertainment and journalism With a focus on both the aesthetic and functional shifts in seriality the book offers theoretical insights into the future of storytelling in a media landscape increasingly shaped by data driven strategies and audience participation Furthermore the book tackles how seriality navigates the delicate balance between creativity and commercial demands As a significant contribution the book features interviews with key industry professionals in the field of serial media production Seriality in the Streaming Era is an essential resource for scholars students and industry professionals as well as anyone curious about the evolving role of serialized narratives in shaping modern media culture

Making Sense of Society Alex Khasnabish,2022-05-30T00:00:00Z Grounded in the sister disciplines of sociology and anthropology this textbook is an accessible and critical introduction to contemporary social research Alex Khasnabish eschews the common disciplinary silos in favour of an integrated approach to understanding and practising critical social research Situated in the North American context the text draws on cross cultural examples to give readers a clear sense of the diversity in human social relations It is organized thematically in a way that introduces readers to the core areas of social research and social organization and takes an unapologetically radical approach in identifying the relations of oppression and exploitation that give rise to what most corporate textbooks euphemistically identify as social problems Focusing on key dynamics and processes at the heart of so many contemporary issues and public conversations this text highlights the ways in which critical social research can contribute to exploring understanding and forging alternatives to an increasingly bankrupt violent unstable and unjust status quo

Making Sense of Popular Culture Eduardo de Gregorio-Godeo,Ángel Mateos-Aparicio Martin-Albo,2017-05-11 The study of popular culture has come of age and is now an area of central concern for the well established domain of cultural studies In a context where research in popular culture has become closely intertwined with current debates within cultural studies this volume provides a selection of recent insights into the study of the popular from cultural studies perspectives Dealing with issues concerning representation cultural production and consumption or identity construction this anthology includes chapters analysing a range of genres from film television fiction drama and print media to painting in various contexts through a number of cultural studies oriented theoretical and methodological orientations The contributions here specifically focus on a wide variety of issues ranging from the ideological construction of identities in print media to the narratives of the postmodern condition in film and fiction through investigations into youth the dialogue between the canon and the popular in Shakespeare and the so called topographies of the popular in spatial and visual representation In exploring the interface between cultural studies and popular culture through a number of significant case studies this volume will be of interest not only within the fields of cultural studies but also within media and communication studies film studies and gender studies among others

Writing Landscape and Setting in the Anthropocene Philippa Holloway, Craig Jordan-Baker, 2024-05-31 This edited collection offers an in depth exploration of the role of landscape and place as literary settings It examines the multifaceted relationships between authors narrators and characters to their locales as well as broader considerations of the significance of the representation of landscape in a world deeply affected by human interventions Consisting of case studies of projects that engage with these questions as well as research examining the theoretical underpinnings of both creative practices processes and post textual analysis of published works this volume is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary in scope In the context of the climate crisis and a pandemic which has caused us to re evaluate the significance of landscape and the environment it responds to the need to engage current trends within the academy and in broader social debate about our relationship to the natural world

Climate Mobility Justice Elena Giacomelli, Pierluigi Musarò, 2025-11-08 This book explores how the intertwined challenges of climate change and human im mobilities are being narrated governed and resisted From media and policies to art and activism the book investigates the stories we tell and the ones we silence about who moves who stays and who tries to govern human mobilities What emerges is a powerful critique of crisis narratives that legitimize fear repression and exclusion and a call for new imaginaries grounded in justice care and planetary belonging Engaging with voices from the Global South Indigenous epistemologies and feminist and decolonial thought this book offers a bold rethinking of how to confront one of the defining issues of our time It is essential reading for anyone interested in the future of climate politics migration and global solidarity

The Politics of Horror Damien K. Picariello, 2020-06-26 The Politics of Horror features contributions from scholars in a variety of fields political science English communication studies and others that explore the connections between horror and politics How might resources drawn from the study of politics inform our readings of and conversations about horror In what ways might horror provide a useful lens through which to consider enduring questions in politics and political thought And what insights might be drawn from horror as we consider contemporary political issues In turning to horror the contributors to this volume offer fresh provocations to inform a broad range of discussions of politics

Alienation, Apocalypse and the Postmodern Condition in "I am Legend" by Richard Matheson Maximilian Rütters, 2021-09-07 Seminar paper from the year 2015 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2 3 University of

Bonn language English abstract The work that will be focused on the novel I Am Legend by Richard Matheson brings together the idea of the last living human on earth and the myth of vampires The author shows the theories of the novel that are hidden between the lines These theories are on the one hand easy to find and very obvious but on the other hand they have to be decoded word by word To be more specific I will try to show that the condition of alienation is one of the main topics in Matheson s writing Moreover I will show some postmodern aspect of the novel and why it is so fascinating to read apocalyptic writings The novel may be written in 1954 and set in the late 1970s but it can be a model for current interpretations of the apocalypse since apocalyptic writings make sense of bad things and are coping with situations in which people feel helpless

Touch Richard Kearney,2021-02-23 Our existence is increasingly lived at a distance As we move from flesh to image we are in danger of losing touch with each other and ourselves How can we combine the physical with the virtual our embodied experience with our global connectivity How can we come back to our senses Richard Kearney offers a timely call for the cultivation of the basic human need to touch and be touched He argues that touch is our most primordial sense foundational to our individual and common selves Kearney explores the role of touch from ancient wisdom traditions to modern therapies He demonstrates that a fundamental aspect of touch is interdependence its inherently reciprocal nature which offers a crucial corrective to our fixation with control Making the case for the complementarity of touch and technology this book is a passionate plea to recover a tangible sense of community and the joys of life with others
