How the online presence of a tourist destination affects the country brand. The Case of Lithuania Viktorija Širvinskė, 2016-09-28 Master's Thesis from the year 2016 in the subject Tourism Miscellaneous grade 1 3 Stralsund University of Applied Sciences Faculty of Business Studies course Tourism Development Strategies language English abstract This thesis is aimed to test a hypothesis of the country brand's reliance on the online presence The created evaluation model used in the primary research of this paper determines whether there is enough evidence in the data gathered to indicate that the online presence of a tourist destination corresponds to its country brand's rank The research is focused on the online presence of Lithuania as a weak ranking country brand The online presence results of Lithuania as a tourist destination are compared to the examples of two stronger country brands The conclusions derived from the comparison of the results determine the success of the online presence of Lithuania establish whether the hypothesis of the thesis is true or not while noting the limitations and possible errors of the research and provide the suggestions for the country brand and online presence improvements A Colorful History of Popular Delusions Robert E. Bartholomew, Peter Hassall,2015-10-13 This eclectic history of unusual crowd behavior describes a rich assortment of mass phenomena ranging from the amusing and quirky to the shocking and deplorable What do fads crazes manias urban legends moral panics riots stampedes and other mass expressions of emotion have in common By creating a typology of such behavior past and present the authors show how common extraordinary group reactions to fear or excitement are And they offer insights into how these sometimes dangerous mob responses can be avoided We may not be surprised to read about the peculiarities of the European Middle Ages when superstition was commonplace like the meowing nuns of France tarantism a dancing mania in Italy or the malicious anti Semitic poison well scares But similar phenomena show up in our own era Examples include the social networking hysteria of 2012 which resulted in uncontrollable twitching by teenage girls in Leroy NY the phantom bus terrorist of 2004 in Vancouver Canada and the itching outbreak of 2000 in South Africa Vivid detailed and thoroughly researched this is a fascinating overview of collective human behavior in its many unusual forms Trump's dramatic electoral victory.
