Screening Twilight Wickham Clayton, Sarah Harman, 2014-06-19 The Twilight saga a series of five films adapted from Stephanie Meyer's four vampire novels has been a sensation both at the box office and through the attention it has won from its predominantly teenaged fans. This series has also been the subject of criticism and sometimes derision often from critics and on occasion even from fans. However it also offers rich opportunities for analytic and critical attention which the contributors to Screening Twilight demonstrate with energy and style. Through examining Twilight the book unpacks how this popular group of films work as cinematic texts what they have to say about cinema and culture today and how fans may seek to re-read or subvert these messages. The chapters address Twilight in the context of the vampire and myth in terms of genre and reception identity gender and sexuality and through re-viewing the series fandom. Screening Twilight is also a revelation of how a popular cinematic phenomenon like Twilight rewards close attention from contemporary critical scholars of cinema and culture.

Sleepless in Hollywood Lynda Obst, 2013-06-11 Explores how the DVD market's collapse has triggered a refocus on special effects and 3D over expensive actors and writers drawing on insights from industry experts to consider if an increasingly eccentric movie business is salvageable.
