The Digital Popular in India Deepali Yadav, Vipin K. Kadavath, 2023-11-24 This book will look at digital popular cultures in the post millennial Indian context and trace patterns of consumption and forms of agency that it engenders thus offering an interpretative analysis of digital content on different platforms. The book consists of three sections. The first section centres around novel practices such as transnational consumption of digital popular content. The second section deals with influencer marketing and the ways in which mediated personalities get transformed. The third section includes textual analysis of OTT and other digital content in order to understand its effects on refashioning social identities such as class, caste and gender.

Dance in US Popular Culture Jennifer Atkins, 2023-07-21 This innovative textbook applies basic dance history and theory to contemporary popular culture examples in order to examine our own ways of moving in and through culture. By drawing on material relevant to students, Dance in US Popular Culture successfully introduces students to critical thinking around the most personal of terrain: our bodies and our identities. The book asks readers to think about what embodied knowledge we carry with us and how we can understand history and society through that lens. What stereotypes and accompanying expectations are embedded in performance related to gender and/or race? For instance, how such expectations are reinforced, negotiated, challenged, embraced or rescripted by performers and audiences? How do readers articulate their own sense of complex identity within the constantly shifting landscape of popular culture? How does this shape an active sense of their everyday lives and how this can act as a springboard towards dismantling systems of oppression? Through readings, questions, movement analyses and assignment prompts that take students from computer to nightclub and beyond, Dance in US Popular Culture readers develop their own cultural sense of dance and the moving body's sociopolitical importance while also determining how dance is fundamentally applicable to their own identity. This is the ideal textbook for high school and undergraduate students of dance and dance studies in BA and BFA.

Gender in Digital Entrepreneurship Grisna Anggadwita, Léo-Paul Dana, Veland Ramadani, Alain Fayolle, Justina Shiroka-Pula, Adhi Prasetyo, 2025-12-16 This book offers a comprehensive exploration of the intersection between gender and digital entrepreneurship focusing on emerging countries. Despite the transformative potential of digital technologies gender disparities in entrepreneurship persist particularly in emerging countries. Women entrepreneurs often face a unique set of challenges that hinder their participation and success in the digital economy. Therefore understanding the unique challenges and opportunities faced by women entrepreneurs is crucial in those areas. From access to capital and networks to overcoming societal biases this book delves into the complexities of gender dynamics within the digital startup ecosystem. Through real world case studies this book highlights both the achievements and challenges experienced by digital entrepreneurs especially for women. This book provides both inspiration and practical insight serving as a valuable resource for policymakers educators and aspiring entrepreneurs in advancing gender equality within the digital landscape. Aligned with Sustainable Development Goal 5 SDG 5 it emphasizes the promotion of equal access to economic resources for women the empowerment of women through technology and the adoption and reinforcement of policies and legislation that support gender equality
