Booktube Recommendations Readers Choice:

Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature sociology media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries The ^ALibrary Screen Scene Renee Hobbs, Liz Deslauriers, Pam Steager, 2019-06-07 The Library Screen Scene shows how library film and media literacy education programs promote community and a sense of civic engagement Digital Textualities and Spaces in ELT Theresa Summer, Ralf Gießler, 2025-03-31 The digital world opens up a vast number of spaces such as immersive virtual reality digital book corners and discourses marked by hashtags In this volume we argue that digital spaces and textualities should play a more central role in English language teaching and learning ELT emphasising their multimodal and interactive nature as a means of engaging with different layers of meaning in the target language Digital spaces function as contact zones where readers and writers communicate negotiate experiences and shape collective identities Within these spaces digital textualities create opportunities for competence development across various language related domains fostering a critical engagement with texts Bringing together theoretical insights conceptual developments and case studies this volume explores the potential of digital spaces and textualities for ELT while addressing their practical implications Chicago Tribune Index ,1996 Book Review Digest ,1978 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher Radio-electronics ,1973 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1975 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over

6 800 major science and social science journals Reading Bestsellers Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2023-04-27
Readers are essential agents in the production of bestsellers but bestsellers are not essential to readers' leisure pursuits. The starting point in this Element is readers' opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English. Readers' relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture. Based on three years of original research (2019–2021) including a quantitative survey with readers, interviews with social media influencers, and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space, the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make: choosing, connecting, and responding in a transmedia era where on and offline media practices co-exist. The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture, reliance on trusted others, and an ethic of responsiveness.
