Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education Barker, Megel R., Hansen, Robyn Conrad, Hammer, Liam, 2023-11-24 The Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education addresses the growing complexity and diversity of international schools by examining the critical issues and global trends faced by practitioners in this field. With a lack of research on the experiences and actions of school practitioners in these isolated workplaces this book aims to provide practical and evidence based solutions. The book covers a wide range of topics including equity and access diversity teacher retention legal frameworks school typology governance cultural competence third culture kids leadership and practice technology and parent engagement. Written by educational professionals researchers and anthropologists it offers a unique collection of voices from those with lived experiences in this field making it an invaluable resource for anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of the international school sector. Whether you are an educator researcher policymaker school leader lecturer or anthropologist the Handbook of Research on Critical Issues and Global Trends in International Education is a must read comprehensive guide to the complexities and challenges of international education providing practical solutions for improving the quality of education in this rapidly evolving field. If you are looking to gain a nuanced understanding of the critical issues facing international schools and evidence based approaches for addressing these challenges this book is the perfect resource for you.

The Routledge Companion to International Children's Literature John Stephens, 2017-09-11 Demonstrating the aesthetic cultural political and intellectual diversity of children's literature across the globe The Routledge Companion to International Children's Literature is the first volume of its kind to focus on the undervalued regions of the world. With particular focus on Asia Africa and Latin America the collection raises awareness of children's literature and related media as they exist in large regions of the world to which mainstream European and North American scholarship pays very little attention. Sections cover Concepts and theories Historical contexts and national identity Cultural forms and children's texts Traditional story and adaptation Picture books across the majority world Trends in children's and young adult literatures Exposition of the literary cultural and historical contexts in which children's literature is produced together with an exploration of intersections between these literatures and more extensively researched areas will enhance access and understanding for a large range of international readers. The essays offer an ideal introduction for those newly approaching literature for children in specific areas looking for new insights and interdisciplinary perspectives or interested in directions for future scholarship.

Global Trends in Translator and Interpreter Training Séverine Hubscher-Davidson, Michal Borodo, 2012-05-31 Analyzes topics and issues in translator and interpreter training focussing on areas that are new and underexplored yet crucial for translator interpreter practice. Global Perspectives in Children's Literature Evelyn Blossom Freeman, Barbara A. Lehman, 2001 KEY BENEFIT This book presents a comprehensive discussion of international children's books and their use in K-8 classrooms.

KEY TOPICS Global Perspectives in Children's Literature reviews the status of children's literature around the world and elaborates on the benefits of international children's literature for children's development and the curriculum. The book presents various genres such as picture books, fiction, informational books, and poetry. Issues in the field and criteria for selecting books to be used in the classroom are provided, as well as a discussion of history and contemporary trends worldwide. Specific ways to share international books are also presented as they relate to theme studies, specific content areas, visual literacy, and language arts. Useful for anyone interested in global education specifically that of Children's Literature.

Global Child Myriam Denov, Claudia Mitchell, Marjorie Rabiau, 2023-01-13. Armed conflicts continue to wreak havoc on children and families around the world with profound effects. In 2017, 420 million children, nearly one in five, were living in conflict-affected areas, an increase of 30 million from the previous year. The recent surge in war-induced migration, referred to as a global refugee crisis, has made migration a highly politicized issue with refugee populations and host countries facing unique challenges. We know from research related to asylum-seeking families that it is vital to think about children and families in relation to what it means to stay together, what it means for parents to be separated from their children, and the kinds of everyday tensions that emerge in living in dangerous, insecure, and precarious circumstances. In Global Child, the authors draw on what they have learned through their collaborative undertakings and highlight the unique features of participatory arts-based and socio-ecological approaches to studying war-affected children and families, demonstrating the collective strength as well as the limitations and ethical implications of such research. Building on work across the Global South and the Global North, this book aims to deepen an understanding of their tri-pillared approach and the potential of this methodology for contributing to improved practices in working with war-affected children and their families.

The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan, Diane Goetz Person, 2005-01-01. Provides articles covering children's literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi, C. S. Lewis, J. K. Rowling, and Anno Mitsumasa. A Study of International Children's Picture Books Published in the United States in 1994 Susan Marcia Stan, 1997. Fifty Years of Children's Books: 1910-1960: Trends, Backgrounds, Influences Dora V. Souvenir, International Children's Book Fair, 1979. Contributed articles on the nature and trends of children's literature in India and abroad. Library & Information Science Abstracts, 2002. International Journal of Religious Education, 1927. Global Trends in Media Education Tony Lavender, Birgitte Tufte, Dafna Lemish, 2003. Over the last decades, Media Education has gradually obtained an educational status in many countries throughout the world, although few countries have actually incorporated this subject in their formal school curricula. Where Media Education is taught today, it is principally carried out using a relaxed, pluralistic, and a cross or multidisciplinary approach. This book sets out to explore this new approach to the subject via chapters that are representative of ongoing work by leading Media Education researchers in nine different countries and from all five continents Media Education is continually evolving and the individual chapters indicate that the passion for the subject is global while the actual translations of practices and policies are very much local The book expands the debate about Media Education beyond the traditions and interests of one part of the world to encompass the needs of the rest An Introduction to the World of Children's Books Margaret Richardson Marshall,1988 Offers a brief look at the history of children s literature and discusses important examples The Literary World ,1900 Children's Library Yearbook ,1930 Children's Library Yearbooks American Library Association.
