

The image shows a close-up, low-angle shot of a Citibank sign. The sign is a bright blue, three-dimensional rectangular structure that protrudes from a modern building with a glass and metal facade. The word "citibank" is written in white, lowercase, sans-serif font across the front face of the sign. A red arc, part of the Citibank logo, is positioned above the "i". The building's architecture features large glass windows and dark metal frames. The lighting suggests it might be late afternoon or early morning, with some reflections on the glass surfaces.
