What is Confirmation?

Confirmation is a sacrament of initiation where a Catholic receives the grace from the Holy Spirit and becomes a full member of the Catholic Church.

Confirmation is a sacrament of initiation into the Catholic Church. During Confirmation, a person is marked with the seal of the Holy Spirit. This strengthens the grace that was first received in Baptism. Anyone who has been baptized in the Catholic Church is eligible to be confirmed. A Catholic can only be confirmed once.

During a Catholic confirmation, the ordinary minister will place his hand over the confirmation candidate and will anoint the candidate's hand with Chrism Oil. The minister will say, "Be sealed with the Holy Spirit."

In most cases, a Bishop will administer the sacrament of Confirmation. This is because bishops are the original ministers of Confirmation. Bishops are the successors of the apostles. The apostles were the original followers of Christ.

Bishops can visit local Churches to confirm entire groups of students. It is also possible for a Bishop to "delegate" this authority to a priest, which allows the priest to perform the sacrament without the presence of a bishop.
