Introduction to Sanskrit: Part I Thomas Egenes, 2015-01-01 This text focuses on the beginning study of Classical Sanskrit although several of the quotations are in Vedic Sanskrit. Normally Vedic Sanskrit is studied after Classical Sanskrit is learned. This text is written to fulfil a need that still remains which is to make the introductory study of Sanskrit simple, concise and systematic, thereby making it more accessible and enjoyable for a beginning student. After completing this text, you should be able to study any of the above Sanskrit textbooks more comfortably or begin Part Two of this text. Part Two will feature the reading of selected verses from the Bhagavad Gita accompanied by a more thorough explanation of unfamiliar rules of grammar as they are encountered in the reading. Both volumes together will cover the basic rules of Sanskrit grammar. For college classes, Part One covers the standard material for a one semester course and Part Two for the second semester. After completing Part Two, the student should be able to read the Bhagavad Gita with the aid of a Sanskrit dictionary and a word by word English translation. There are several reasons to study the subtle and refined language of Sanskrit. The sound script, grammar and systematic nature of the language are charming in themselves, something of great beauty. The study of Sanskrit creates orderliness within the mind because Sanskrit is a highly systematic language reflecting the orderliness of nature itself.
