Current Affairs 2013:

China and America: Destined for Conflict? Wenzhao Tao, 2022-09-25 This book explores the possibility and feasibility of building a new model of major country relations between China and the United States which is of great significance to the sound interaction between the two countries and the preservation of peace and stability of the world. In early June 2013 Chinese President Xi Jinping and US President Barack Obama reached a consensus on building a new model of major country relations at the historical Sunnylands meeting in California. In the years that followed the two leaders were committed to that goal despite the different interpretations in its substance. How is the new model of major country relations conceptualized and developed? What renders it possible? Is the major country conflict inevitable? These are the basic issues addressed in this book. Now China-US relations are at a critical juncture. The international community is watching the world's two largest economies and is quite concerned about the future of one of the world's most complicated bilateral relationships. This timely publication of Professor Tao Wenzhao provides us with a realistic approach to managing this vital relationship in a candid and balanced way.

Media Law in Ireland Marie McGonagle, Sharon McLaughlin, Tarlach McGonagle, 2018-04-19. Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this analysis of media law in Ireland surveys the massively altered and enlarged legal landscape traditionally encompassed in laws pertaining to freedom of expression and regulation of communications. Everywhere a shift from mass media to mass self communication has put enormous pressure on traditional law models. An introduction describing the main actors and salient aspects of media markets is followed by in depth analyses of print media, radio and television broadcasting, the Internet, commercial communications, political advertising, concentration in media markets and media regulation. Among the topics that arise for discussion are privacy, cultural policy, protection of minors, competition policy, access to digital gateways, protection of journalists, sources, standardization and interoperability and liability of intermediaries. Relevant case law is considered throughout as are various ethical codes. A clear comprehensive overview of media legislation, case law and doctrine presented from the practitioner's point of view. This book is a valuable time saving resource for all concerned with media and communication freedom. Lawyers representing parties with interests in Ireland will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative media law.
