Prison Vocational Education and Policy in the United States Andrew J Dick, William Rich, Tony Waters, 2016-08-05

This book explores California's prison system in the context of vocational education reform For prisons in the early twenty first century ideologies of evidence based management meant that reform efforts to change the purpose of prisons from punishment to rehabilitation through vocational education required evidence to justify policy prescriptions Yet who determines what constitutes evidence In political environments solutions are typically pre conceived which means that the nature of the evidence collected is also preconceived As a result key assumptions about outcomes are often wished away to show improvement and be accountable Through a detailed analysis interspersed with stories from the authors experiences behind the wall among California's prison population the authors challenge the nature of evidence based research as used in the prison environment In the process they describe the thorny problems facing reformers

Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment Robert M. Bohm, Gavin Lee, 2017-12-15 Capital punishment is one of the more controversial subjects in the social sciences especially in criminal justice and criminology. Over the last decade or so the United States has experienced a significant decline in the number of death sentences and executions. Since 2007 eight states have abolished capital punishment bringing the total number of states without the death penalty to 19 plus the District of Columbia and more are likely to follow suit in the near future. Nebraska reinstated its death penalty in 2016. Worldwide 70 percent of countries have abolished capital punishment in law or in practice. The current trend suggests the eventual demise of capital punishment in all but a few recalcitrant states and countries. Within this context a fresh look at capital punishment in the United States and worldwide is warranted. The Routledge Handbook on Capital Punishment comprehensively examines the topic of capital punishment from a wide variety of perspectives. A thoughtful introductory chapter from experts Bohm and Lee presents a contextual framework for the subject matter and chapters present state of the art analyses of a range of aspects of capital punishment grouped into five sections: 1 Capital Punishment History Opinion and Culture; 2 Capital Punishment Rationales and Religious Views; 3 Capital Punishment and Constitutional Issues; 4 The Death Penalty's Administration; and 5 The Death Penalty's Consequences. This is a key collection for students taking courses in prisons penology criminal justice criminology and related subjects and is also an essential reference for academics and practitioners working in prison service or in related agencies.

Principles and Practice of Lacrimal Surgery Mohammad Javed Ali, 2018-02-08 This second edition of the highly successful and comprehensive text on lacrimal disorders presents the latest developments in this rapidly evolving field. The new edition includes six new chapters additional photographs and all chapters now have a separate section on recent advances. It methodically discusses basic anatomy and underlying pathology patient evaluation and all surgical procedures currently used to manage such disorders. It thoroughly yet concisely reviews surgical modalities including the endoscopic and micro endoscopic approaches and provides ample illustrations for a better understanding. Further it discusses in detail controversial topics and treatment dilemmas and reviews the current consensus among the experts. This is an up to date reference work for dacryologists oculoplastic surgeons general ophthalmologists as well as fellows in training. The Praeger International Collection on Addictions Angela Browne.
