Footlights David Robinson, Charlie Chaplin, 2014 Charlie Chaplin first formed the story of Limelight as a 34 000 word novella Footlights This book traces the evolution of the story from its origin in Chaplin's 1916 meeting with Nijinsky then recounts the making of the film and traces the real life sources of Chaplin's memories the people and theatres of London's Soho and the ballet tradition of the theatres of Leicester Square the Empire and the Alhambra From back cover Charlie Chaplin John W. Fawell, 2023-01-17 Charlie Chaplin was a skilled comedian filmmaker and composer and the mission of this book is to educate readers on the wide variety of Chaplin's artistry the subtlety of his mimetic satire the sophistication of his film direction and his prodigious musical skill that resulted in some of film's greatest orchestral arrangements This encyclopedia also emphasizes the singular nature of Chaplin's biography his unprecedented renown the wide list of notables in art and culture with whom he fraternized and the controversies that seemed to dog each stage of his life perhaps most notably in his run ins with the FBI and the House UnAmerican Activities Committee both of whom suspected him of communist leanings Charlie Chaplin A Reference Guide to His Life and Works captures his life and legacy It features a chronology an introduction that offers a brief account of his life and a dictionary section listing entries on Chaplin's childhood career family and associates The bibliography is one of the largest available of works concerning Chaplin Movie

Comedians of the 1950s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-11-03 The 1950s were a transitional period for film comedians The artistic suppression of the McCarthy era and the advent of television often resulted in a dumbing down of motion pictures Cartoonist turned director Frank Tashlin contributed a funny but cartoonish effect through his work with comedians like Jerry Lewis and Bob Hope A new vanguard of comedians appeared without stock comic garb or make up fresh faces not easily pigeonholed as merely comedians such as Tony Randall Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis Some traditional comedians like Charlie Chaplin Red Skelton and Danny Kaye continued their shtick though with some evident tweaking This book provides insight into a misunderstood decade of film history with an examination of the personality comedians The talents of Dean Martin and Bob Hope are reappraised and the dumb blonde stereotype as applied to Judy Holliday and Marilyn Monroe is deconstructed

The Music of Charlie Chaplin Jim Lochner, 2018-09-20 Charlie Chaplin the actor is universally synonymous with his beloved Tramp character Chaplin the director is considered one of the great auteurs and innovators of cinema history Less well known is Chaplin the composer whose instrumental theme for Modern Times 1936 later became the popular standard Smile a Billboard hit for Nat King Cole in 1954 Chaplin was prolific yet could not read or write music It took a rotating cast of talented musicians to translate his unorthodox humming off key singing and amateur piano and violin playing into the singular orchestral vision he heard in his head Drawing on numerous transcriptions from 60 years of original scores this comprehensive study reveals the untold story of Chaplin the composer and the string of famous and not so famous musicians he employed giving fresh insight into his films and shedding new light on the man behind the icon Chaplin's Films Uno
