Phonics Screening Check

What is phonics?

Phonics is the study of the sounds of words and how they are written. It is the study of the relationship between the sounds of words and the letters that represent them.

Phonics is a key part of learning to read and write. It helps children to understand how words are made and how they are written. This helps them to read and write more confidently.

How is phonics taught?

Phonics is taught in a variety of ways. Some children learn to read by looking at the letters and sounds of words. Others learn by listening to the sounds of words and trying to write them.

Phonics is also taught through games and activities. Children can learn to identify the sounds of words by playing games like 'I spy' or 'Simon says'.

Why is phonics important?

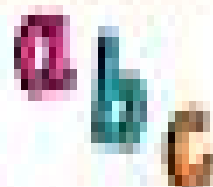

Phonics is important because it helps children to understand how words are made and how they are written. This helps them to read and write more confidently.

What are the phonics screening check questions?

The phonics screening check is a test that asks children to read words that they have not heard before. The words are chosen so that they contain sounds that children are learning to read.
