Comparative Politics in Transition John McCormick,2012-01-01 The Seventh Edition of COMPARATIVE POLITICS IN TRANSITION combines a thematic framework with a country by country approach to provide a thoughtful and effective introduction to Comparative Politics that is appropriate for students new to the study of political science The author uses an arenas classification to organize and frame the systematic comparative analysis rather than the traditional three worlds framework This classification more accurately reflects the contemporary political economic and social realities of different political systems allowing the author to provide historical theoretical and conceptual background through ten in text country case studies Unlike most other comparative politics texts McCormick provides a balanced study of the Western and non Western world and explores the politics and government of Islam and of failed states Important Notice Media content referenced within the product description or the product text may not be available in the ebook version

Decolonisation after Democracy Laurence Piper,2020-05-21 Decolonisation after Democracy addresses the provocative idea that we need to rid higher education of lingering forms of colonial knowledge This matters because in the colonial era much knowledge was put to the service of subjugating indigenous peoples and the assumptions from this era may linger into the present Examples of deep rooted and foundational forms of knowledge that carry colonial traits are normative binaries such as civilised and backward modern and traditional and rational and superstitious In addition some accounts of positive values like freedom equality justice and democracy may hide the assumption that the western experience is the norm from which other kinds are rendered imitations deviations or pathologies In this collection some of South Africa s leading political scientists and academics engage with the challenge of decolonising knowledge in the research and teaching of politics It includes new insights about the state international relations clientelism statesociety relations and land reform and introduces new ways to engage the colonial library curriculum reform and the marginality of historically black institutions Finally the contributors deal with the decolonial challenge posed by the FeesMustFall student movements reflecting on issues of revolutionary politics and gender and sexual violence This book was originally published as a special issue of Politikon
