Adolescent Dating Violence Jeff R. Temple, Kelli S. Franco, Emily F. Rothman, 2025-12-15 Addressing the critical issue of adolescent dating violence this comprehensive volume in the Advances in Psychotherapy series provides mental health professionals with the essential tools for recognizing, assessing and treating victims and perpetrators. The authors expertly explore the diagnostic guidelines, theories and treatment options with a focus on those most at risk for dating violence, youth aged 10-24 years. Emphasizing a gender inclusive and intersectional approach, the text challenges common myths and provides evidence based recommendations for several effective interventions that can be used in schools and correctional institutions A detailed case example offers insights into the different aspects of assessment treatment and client and school follow up This book equips clinical psychologists child psychologists educational and school psychologists forensic psychologists and students with the latest research and practical resources to respond to adolescent dating violence with care and urgency
