Phonics Screening Check

What is it?

The phonics screening check is a reading assessment for Year 1 children. It is a quick and easy test to find out if your child is learning phonics as expected. It is a statutory requirement for all children in Year 1 to take the screening check.

What does it test?

It tests children's ability to read words that contain the 40 common phonemes taught in the Year 1 phonics curriculum. These words are grouped into three sets of 14 words each.

How is it used?

The screening check is a quick and easy test to find out if your child is learning phonics as expected. It is a statutory requirement for all children in Year 1 to take the screening check.

Phonics Screening Check

What is phonics?

Children begin to learn phonics from the age of three and continue to do so throughout their school years. They learn to read by breaking words into smaller parts and then putting them together again. This is called decoding. They also learn to write words by putting them together again. This is called encoding.
