Black Capitalists challenges readers to reconsider who gets to be the beneficiary of capitalism and reckons with the responsibility that comes with using the tools of our imperfect economic system to advance social good

Dr Laryea reveals in detail how race profoundly shapes the way we participate in capitalism and how understanding these differences can guide us toward a more inclusive and equitable future

From newly minted undergraduates who find themselves working twenty hour days to prove their worth on Wall Street to Nigerian startup founders working to build global credit scores spanning the streets of Accra to the boardrooms of Goldman Sachs
