Fountas,Gay Su Pinnell,2006 For ten years and in two classic books Irene Fountas and Gay Su Pinnell have described how to analyze the characteristics of texts and select just right books to use for guided reading instruction Now for the first time all of their thinking and research has been updated and brought together into Leveled Books K-8 to form the ultimate guide to choosing and using books from kindergarten through middle school Fountas and Pinnell take you through every aspect of leveled books describing how to select and use them for different purposes in your literacy program and offering prototype descriptions of fiction and nonfiction books at each level. They share advice on the role of leveled books in reading instruction, analyzing the characteristics of fiction and nonfiction texts using benchmark books to assess instructional levels for guided reading, selecting books for both guided and independent reading, organizing high quality classroom libraries, acquiring books and writing proposals to fund classroom library purchases, creating a school book room. In addition, Fountas and Pinnell explain the leveling process in detail so that you can tentatively level any appropriate book that you want to use in your instruction. Best of all, Leveled Books K-8 is one half of a new duo of resources that will change how you look at leveled books. Its companion, www.FountasandPinnellLeveledBooks.com is a searchable and frequently updated website that includes more than 18,000 titles. With Leveled Books K-8, you'll know how and why to choose books for your readers and with www.FountasandPinnellLeveledBooks.com you'll have the ideal tool at your fingertips for finding appropriate books for guided reading.

Building on best selling texts over three decades this thoroughly revised new edition is essential reading for both primary and secondary school teachers in training and in practice supporting both initial school based training and extended career long professionalism. Considering a wide range of professionally relevant topics, Reflective Teaching in Schools presents key issues and research insights, suggests activities for classroom enquiry and offers guidance on key readings. Uniquely two levels of support are offered: practical evidence based guidance on key classroom issues including relationships, behaviour, curriculum planning, teaching strategies and assessment processes; routes to deeper forms of expertise including evidence informed principles and concepts to support in-depth understanding of teacher expertise.

Andrew Pollard, former Director of the UK's Teaching and Learning Research Programme, led development of the book with support from primary and secondary specialists from the University of Cambridge, UK. Reflective Teaching in Schools is part of a fully integrated set of resources for primary and secondary education. Readings for Reflective Teaching in Schools directly complements and extends the chapters in this book. Providing a compact and portable library, it is particularly helpful in school based teacher education. The website, reflectiveteaching.co.uk, offers supplementary resources including reflective activities, research briefings, advice on further reading and additional chapters. It also features a glossary, links to useful websites and a conceptual framework for deepening expertise. This book is one of the Reflective Teaching Series inspiring education through innovation in early years schools, further, higher and adult education.
