Character Education Edward F. DeRoche, Mary M. Williams, 2001 Contemporary schools require far more than just the three R s Beyond the books and tests educational facilities are expected to produce members of society with integrity as well Character education is an abstract idea that many educators both teachers and administrators have a difficult time implementing and too often it gets left out of the curriculum How do school personnel then instill values of good character in students and as an administrator how do you spread these values to the entire school DeRoche and Williams provide school leaders with an effective road map touring schools that have achieved success The authors divide the reader s journey through reform efforts into several tour stops beginning with a review of the character education framework passing through subjects such as school climate core values training personnel forming relationships and concluding with guidelines for evaluation Each stop contains a list of helpful articles or books as well as valuable Internet resources The conclusion of the journey is ultimately the responsibility of school leaders but this book will give you a head start

It Starts in the Classroom Edward F. DeRoche, Serena Pariser, 2022-08-23 Few character education books published in the 21st century have addressed the resource needs of P-12 teachers. It Starts in the Classroom: Character Education for a Better Tomorrow is a character education tool kit that enables P-12 teachers, teachers in training, counselors, administrators, and coaches to see themselves as the key character educators in their schools, classrooms, and community. This book helps bring humanity, student engagement, and other life skills into the classroom that have been proven to increase student academic achievement. Ultimately, It Starts in the Classroom helps teachers see that they are in fact really changing the world for the better. This book shows them how to do this not only with their students but with themselves. With the current state of our world, character education is needed now more than ever. Things can get better, but it starts in the classrooms with the teachers and the students.
