, 2009-10 This is a nonfiction story covering 2 1/2 years of a CIA Contract Agent in Vietnam It was the period when the Paris Peace Talks name was changed to the Paris Peace Accord to prevent the American people from learning that the United States had given up the fight to save the Vietnamese people from the Communist It was a strange war where the citizen soldiers of the United States never lost a battle but were defeated by the Communist lies told to their families at home The Central Intelligence Agency CIA discovered the Communist Plan to move the North Vietnamese Army on selected routes to encircle the US Army and trap them in Saigon to create an American Dunkirk on the day the Paris Peace Accord was to take effect It would prove to the world that the US Army had run from the battle field Mr William Colby head of the CIA efforts in Vietnam was informed of the Communist Plan and he along with a few patriots in the CIA developed a system to give the US Army time to leave Vietnam in a controlled military disengagement This plan was so secret that no name was given to it and only the men who were fighting to save America from becoming a Communist State knew Bill Colby used every tool available to him One was a CIA Contract Agent Gilbert H Moriggia a CIA Interrogator and another was the secret CIA Dai Phong Program The basic plan was simple a matter of obtaining immediate intelligence and to destroy the communist Ve in all junction of the North Vietnamese Army's transportation routes to Saigon This is the adventure story of how a CIA Contract Agent helped Bill Colby's give the US Army time to save themselves About the Author Ben R Games PhD Major CW4 TCNA 6 flew bombers and night fighters during WW II Then jet fighters during the Korean period and Chinook helicopters in Vietnam He is a member of the North American Mach Busters Club and the Distinguished Flying Cross Society with 737 recorded combat hours After retiring he became the General Manager of the Turks and Caicos National Airlines During the past fifty years his flying adventure stories have been read by people all over the world Besides raising two children his wife Helen was awarded a silver medal for being the 86th woman in the world to fly a helicopter As a housewife they lived in France Japan Vietnam Okinawa and Grand Turk During WW II she once flew co pilot in his B 25 in Okinawa as an RO in his F 82 and in Vietnam on his Chinook CH 47 helicopter Today they all live in Florida      Confession of a CIA Interrogator Joseph B. Kelly, Ben Robert Games, 2007-01 This is a novel of fiction It is a collection of my short stories my poems and my quotes that I have written over my lifetime up to the present All the characters and names of characters are purely fictional any similarity to any real or live person or persons is purely coincidental I hope the reader will enjoy some of my work Also I hope it is entertaining for all my readers Thank You      How the Police Generate False Confessions James L. Trainum, 2016-07-15 Despite the rising number of confirmed false confession cases most people have a hard time grasping why someone would confess to a crime they did not commit or even why a guilty person would admit to something that could put them in jail for life How the Police Generate False Confessions takes you inside the interrogation room exposing the tactics that law enforcement uses to make confessions happen James L Trainum reveals how innocent people can become suspects and then confessed criminals even when they have not committed a crime Using real stories he looks at the inherent coerciveness of the interrogation process and why so many false confessions contain so many of the details that only the true perpetrator would know More disturbingly the book examines how these same processes corrupt witness and victim statements create lying informants and cooperators and induce innocent people to plead guilty Trainum also offers recommendations for change in the U S by looking at how other countries are changing the process to prevent such miscarriages of justice The reasons that people falsely confess can be complex and varied throughout How the Police Generate False Confessions Trainum encourages readers to critically evaluate confessions on their own by gaining a better understanding of the interrogation process      Confessions of Guilt George C. Thomas III, Richard A. Leo, 2012-04-13 The extreme interrogation tactics permitted after the 9 11 attacks illustrate that the level of fear in society influences law Confessions of Guilt traces the law of interrogation as it reflects the level of threat felt in society moving back and forth from greater to lesser tolerance of high pressure police tactics      Torture and Enhanced Interrogation Christina Ann-Marie DiEduardo, 2020-02-07 An all in one resource for understanding the issue of torture and enhanced interrogations including their history as an instrument of state power and warfare debates over the morality of their use in different contexts and efforts by human rights organizations and nations to end torture and enhanced interrogation techniques worldwide Torture and Enhanced Interrogation A Reference Handbook begins with an in depth historical overview of the practice beginning in Ancient Greece and continuing to Guantanamo Bay and beyond After grounding the reader in the historical fundamentals the book examines the most explosive controversies that surround the use of torture and enhanced interrogation techniques like waterboarding to extract information from prisoners or alleged enemies of the state This historical background is supplemented with primary sources that illuminate important torture related laws and international alliances as well as the perspectives of torture survivors and human rights advocates Other features in the book include profiles of notable individuals and organizations associated with the issue annotated bibliography for future research chronology of events and glossary of key terms

Investigative Interviewing Ray Bull,2014-02-10 This edited volume reviews the latest research on investigative interviewing in order to provide insights on the psychological processes of the person being interviewed as well as to offer guidelines for conducting credible and useful interviews Critical and controversial areas are highlighted eg false confessions child interviewing in order to bring clarity to how these interrogations are to be conducted Chapters focus on these areas to provide comprehensive views of theoretical evidence based background as well as practical considerations of interrogation settings and procedures The contributors are internationally respected scholars in the field of psychology and law with particular expertise in the interviews that are critical to legal proceedings And attention is given to the criminal justice system in international perspective

The Bulletin ,2002 Coercion Douglas Rushkoff,2000-10-01 Noted media pundit and author of Playing the Future Douglas Rushkoff gives a devastating critique of the influence techniques behind our culture of rampant consumerism With a skilled analysis of how experts in the fields of marketing advertising retail atmospherics and hand selling attempt to take away our ability to make rational decisions Rushkoff delivers a bracing account of media ecology today consumerism in America and why we buy what we buy helping us recognize when we are being treated like consumers instead of human beings

Confessions Eleanor Milligan,Emma Woodley,2010 This edited collection draws on a range of disciplines in exploring the central place of narrative in social inquiry and understanding the ethical life It provides scholarly and practical insights into the rewards and potential pitfalls of working in and with narrative It offers readers a broad range of carefully considered examples the use of art in enhancing insight into the plights of rural communities in Australia the use of illness narratives in medical education applying narratives of torture survivors and torturers in shaping humane political response and policy in the face of terrorism and the place of the music as a vehicle of story telling and moral growth This volume illuminates the explicit links between the importance of narrative that is the telling of stories to create shape and meaning in our lives and ethical engagement so critical to the achievement of a good life

Forensic and Legal Psychology Mark Costanzo,Daniel Krauss,2015-01-13 Drawing on a combined three decades of teaching experience Costanzo and Krauss help students explore the fascinating intersections where psychology and the law meet in an excitingly written textbook that presents the latest research in the context of dozens of real cases As before the new edition draws on extensive research in social cognitive clinical and developmental psychology to explore virtually every aspect of the legal system studied by psychologists emphasizing the ways research and theory deepen our understanding of key participants e g criminals police victims lawyers witnesses judges and jurors and basic psychological processes e g
