Cohesion In English Halliday:

Cohesion in English M.A.K. Halliday, Ruqaiya Hasan, 2014-01-14 Cohesion in English is concerned with a relatively neglected part of the linguistic system its resources for text construction the range of meanings that are specifically associated with relating what is being spoken or written to its semantic environment A principal component of these resources is cohesion This book studies the cohesion that arises from semantic relations between sentences Reference from one to the other repetition of word meanings the conjunctive force of but so then and the like are considered Further it describes a method for analysing and coding sentences which is applied to specimen texts Cohesion in English Michael Alexander Kirkwood Halliday, 1976 Cohesion in English M. A. K. Halliday, Ruqaiya Hasan, 1979 Cohesion in English M. Halliday, 1976 Cohesion in English M. A. K. Halliday, Ruqaiya Hasan, 1992 New Research on Cohesion and Coherence in Linguistics Zhang Delu, Liu Rushan, 2021-09-15 The study of text cohesion and coherence has been a topic of heated discussion in Linguistics since the 1990s Western linguists have developed two major theoretical frameworks to describe the relationship between the two concepts one posits that cohesive devices are important means to ensure cohesion the other argues that coherence does not rely on cohesion Yet neither has complete explanatory power over reality nor can they solve real life problems This title proposes a creative concrete and highly operational theoretical model that unites cohesion and coherence using authentic English or Chinese examples The authors clarify the concepts of coherence and expand the scope of the research by focusing on a variety of internal and external factors such as psycho cognitive and socio cultural factors Moreover the authors propose that the new theoretical paradigm can be applied to a range of other disciplines including translation and foreign language teaching This title has been one of the most cited works on cohesion and coherence in China Students and scholars of discourse analysis linguistics and language education will find this an invaluable reference Cohesion in English M. A. K. Holliday, Ruqaiya Hasan, 1985 Systemic Functional Linguistics Christian M.I.M. Matthiessen, Kazuhiro Teruya, 2023-07-31 This user friendly student guide is the essential resource for all those engaged in studying systemic functional linguistics SFL Assuming no prior knowledge this guide is divided into nine chapters which can be read independently of one another and used for purposes of reference The reading section maps out and mediates the key SFL literature The application guides show how SFL has been and can be applied to various domains from translation to healthcare communication The term guides demystify the core terminology and the vocabulary guides aid readers in dealing with the most commonly used terms in text analysis Systemic Functional Linguistics is an invaluable guidebook for all those studying functional grammar and SFL within linguistics applied linguistics and related courses Text Complexity and Reading Comprehension Tests Erik Castello, 2008 Based on the analysis of a specially compiled corpus of internationally recognized English as a foreign language EFL reading tests at different levels of proficiency this volume explores the relation between the complexity of written texts and the difficulty of reading comprehension tests It brings together linguistic investigations into the text inherent complexity of the tests and a study of the data derived from their administration to groups of Italian university students The study of text complexity draws on corpus linguistics text linguistics and systemic functional linguistics Both quantitative and qualitative analyses are carried out on the language used in the reading texts and in the related tasks that make up the corpus of tests The assessment of test difficulty on the other hand is informed by research on language testing and in particular by findings and methodologies of Classical Test Theory and Item Response Theory Relevant aspects of these theories are used to analyze and interpret both the data obtained from the administration of the tests and the data collected by means of feedback questionnaires completed by test takers The application of such diverse methodologies and the subsequent comparison of the results of the analyses has brought out interesting correlations between text inherent complexity perceived test difficulty and actual test difficulty

A Systemic Functional Grammar of Chinese Nominal Groups Jing Fang, 2022-09-13 This book describes the grammar of Chinese nominal groups for the purpose of text analysis drawing upon Halliday's systemic functional linguistics SFL model Exploring the metafunctional grammatical resources in nominal groups the book provides a new perspective on conducting text analysis by focusing on the metafunctions performed by various elements in the nominal group The observations on nominal groups presented here are based on both a working corpus of 180 texts of various types and a large referential corpus of over 16 billion tokens With clear descriptions of the terminology used the book presents a case study at the end of each major chapter which demonstrates how the grammatical resources discussed can be applied to the delicate analysis of authentic texts This monograph is more than a grammar book for it offers a new way to engage with a text microscopically and enables readers to approach and analyse a text by focusing on grammatical units below the clause level The book provides an accessible and valuable resource for readers who are interested in SFL based typological description text analysis translation studies between English and Chinese English Chinese comparative linguistic studies and Chinese language teaching and learning

Suffering in the Face of Death Bryan R. Dyer, 2017-04-20 Suffering and death are two topics that are frequently referred to in the Epistle to the Hebrews but have rarely been examined within scholarship on this important New Testament text Dyer redresses the balance in this study of these topics conducting a thorough investigation using semantic domain analysis He incorporates recent advancements in modern linguistics in particular the context of situation and then connects these topics to the social situation addressed in Hebrews In so doing he is able to reveal how the author is responding to the reality of suffering in the lives of his audience With this awareness it becomes clear how the author also responds to his audience's pain by creating models of endurance in suffering and death These serve to motivate his audience toward similar endurance within their own social context Dyer shows that it is possible to make significant determinations about the social setting of Hebrews based upon an examination and analysis of the language used therein language English abstract It is a linguistic reality of today's world that English has become a lingua franca for the world It is the global language of economy technology international politics and the internet In roughly 80% of communication in English no native speakers are involved As Smith Nelson 1985 state Native speakers are no longer the sole judges of what is intelligible in English p 1 Only recently scholars in applied linguistics have conducted research on the characteristics of the use of ELF English as a lingua franca in interactions between non native speakers of English For the purpose of ELF research large corpora such as VOICE Vienna Oxford International Corpus of English have been built up containing data from naturally occurring ELF exchanges Also at the University of Tübingen a corpus of this kind is currently being compiled the Tübingen Midwestern Corpus which contains group discussions on a given economic topic Most of the discussion participants are international students with different first language backgrounds Some discussions also include a native speaker of English There has to date not been a uniform and systematic approach regarding the analysis of comprehension problems in these Midwestern discussions In this thesis I will design a structured set of questions for a standardized retrospective interview that serves to efficiently analyse comprehension problems As the investigation of comprehension problems must go beyond an analysis of purely linguistic features of an interaction syntax morphology phonology situational circumstances in which the interaction takes place will also be taken into account These standardized retrospective interview questions will be applied to four group discussions taken from the Midwestern corpus For the analysis of the data colle

Lexical Cohesion and Corpus Linguistics John Flowerdew, Michaela Mahlberg, 2009-01-14 Lexical cohesion is about meaning in text It concerns the ways in which lexical items relate to each other and to other cohesive devices so that textual continuity is created Traditionally lexical cohesion along with other types of cohesion has been investigated in individual texts With the advent of corpus techniques however there is potential to investigate lexical cohesion with reference to large corpora This collection of papers illustrates a variety of corpus approaches to lexical cohesion Contributions deal with lexical cohesion in relation to rhetorical structure lexical bundles and discourse signalling discourse intonation semantic prosody use of signalling nouns and corpus linguistic theory The volume also considers implications that innovative approaches to lexical cohesion can have for language teaching This volume was originally published as a Special Issue of International Journal of Corpus Linguistics volume 11 3 2006 Trends in English Text Linguistics Gottfried Graustein, Albrecht Neubert, 1979

Perspectives on Academic Persian Abbas Aghdassi, 2021-09-17 This book focuses on the idea of Academic Persian in the growing competition of many Middle Eastern languages to produce and highlight their academic discourse Similar to academic English most West Asian languages including Persian Turkish and Arabic are developing new styles and genres to produce academic texts The book addresses a major question What is academic Persian Intended for researchers experts analysts policy makers and students in Persian Iranian studies and Islamic studies as well as Near Eastern languages and

Middle Eastern cultures and languages the book includes numerous technical contributions on the emerging markets involving west Asian languages Since indexing abstracting crawling metrics citations and visibility are becoming hot issues for academics service providers e g publishers and policy makers e g university heads a knowledge of academic Persian will help readers to grasp what Persian and other similar languages require in academic markets Introduction to Systemic Functional Linguistics Suzanne Eggins,2004-01-01 Introduction to systemic functional linguistics explores the social semiotic approach to language most closely associated with the work of Michael Halliday and his colleagues

Collaborating towards Coherence Sanna-Kaisa Tanskanen,2006-06-14 This book approaches cohesion and coherence from a perspective of interaction and collaboration After a detailed account of various models of cohesion and coherence the book suggests that it is fruitful to regard cohesion as contributing to coherence as a strategy used by communicators to help their fellow communicators create coherence from a text Throughout the book the context sensitive and discourse specific nature of cohesion is stressed cohesive relations are created and interpreted in particular texts in particular contexts By investigating the use of cohesion in four different types of discourse the study shows that cohesion is not uniform across discourse types The analysis reveals that written dialogue computer mediated discussions and spoken monologue prepared speech make use of similar cohesive strategies as spoken dialogue conversations in these contexts the communicators interaction with their fellow communicators leads to a similar outcome The book suggests that this is an indication of the communicators attempt to collaborate towards successful communication Cohesion in English Michael A. Halliday,1989 The Psycholinguistics of Readable Writing Alice S. Horning,1993 This book reviews research in linguistics psychology reading and writing and brings this work to bear on the problem of readable writing The research supports the theory that two factors in text are crucial to its readable quality psycholinguistic redundancy and cohesion The book also reports the results of three empirical studies and a case study that further illustrates this theory The findings have important theoretical and practical implications because they shed light on the nature of reading and writing processes from both linguistic and psychological perspectives and suggest practical approaches to the production and comprehension of readable writing The book also draws on research in second language acquisition and is pertinent to readable writing in both first and second languages Cohesion Thomas Christiansen,2011 This book represents a fresh look at cohesion the point of departure being Halliday and Hasan s seminal Cohesion in English which is examined in depth as are other notable approaches to cohesion such as Hoey s Patterns of Lexis in Text It also compares different studies of relevance to cohesion from other areas of linguistics such as generative grammar Functional Sentence Perspective FSP and corpus linguistics In this way this work extends discussion of cohesion beyond the realms of systemic linguistics to include a broader spectrum of approaches including research into languages other than English The main focus however is on varieties of English and on general and specialised discourse types Rather than limiting itself to the text as product the manifestation of a discourse this book looks at cohesion from the wider perspective of discourse seen as an interactive process. Consequently, different sociolinguistic and cultural factors are also taken into consideration. How far is cohesion a constitutive feature of text? What is the precise link between cohesion and coherence? What specific role does discourse have in phenomena such as anaphora? Do such things as cohesive universals exist across languages? How far do socio-cultural or discourse-specific conventions contribute to the type and degree of cohesion present in a text?
