Reversing the Cult of Speed in Higher Education Jonathan Chambers,Stephannie Gearhart,2018-10-26 A collection of essays written by arts and humanities scholars across disciplines this book argues that higher education has been compromised by its uncritical acceptance of our culture's standards of productivity busyness and speed Inspired by the Slow Movement contributors explain how and why university culture has come to value productivity over contemplation and rapidity over slowness Chapter authors argue that the arts and humanities offer a cogent critique of fast culture in higher education and reframe the discussion of the value of their fields by emphasizing the dialectic between speed and slowness The Spectator, 1899 Time and Tide, 1954

World Heritage Review, 2016 Government Reports Announcements & Index, 1983 The Farmers' Advocate and Home Magazine, 1931 Recovering the Lost Art of Reading Leland Ryken, Glenda Mathes, 2021-03-02 A Christian Perspective on the Joys of Reading Reading has become a lost art With smartphones offering us endless information with the tap of a finger it's hard to view reading as anything less than a tedious and outdated endeavor This is particularly problematic for Christians as many find it difficult to read even the Bible consistently and attentively Reading is in desperate need of recovery Recovering the Lost Art of Reading addresses these issues by exploring the importance of reading in general as well as studying the Bible as literature offering practical suggestions along the way Leland Ryken and Glenda Faye Mathes inspire a new generation to overcome the notion that reading is a duty and instead discover it as a delight

30-Day Reading Challenge Laneshia Lamb, 2018-02-06 As an education enthusiast writing mentor and author Laneshia Lamb is excited to commemorate National Reading Month with a 30 Day Reading and Writing Challenge Comprehension continues to be a concern in classrooms across the country and Laneshia believes practice builds performance To aid children in their practice she created this journal The interior has space for 30 different book titles and summaries The overall objective is to encourage daily reading and writing It's common knowledge that impacts are made through connection The children are asked to connect the stories they read to their own lives and experiences It is in the repeated connecting of text to personal experience that children will begin to critically think and ultimately comprehend Reading Challenges

Elevate your reading experience to a trophy worthy accomplishment with The ULTIMATE Book of Reading Challenges. This book is designed to help you make reading your own. Each challenge is a step into a world of exploration across genres, times, authors, settings, themes, and more that you may have never considered before. Rediscover your bookshelf and join a journey that's as limitless as your curiosity. 25 Diverse Challenges. From genre explorations to character-driven themes, each challenge has something new to offer. 360 Engaging Tasks within those Challenges. With so many options, you'll find endless ways to dive into books old and new. This isn't your average participation trophy; it's a true reading achievement that celebrates dedication, curiosity, and a willingness to explore stories. Whether you're looking to discover new authors, revisit old favorites, or broaden your literary horizons, And best of all, YOU make the rules. This is a book created to enhance your love of reading, not limit it. Can't find a book that you want to read for a task? Skip it. You decide if you will complete each task in order or jump around. Don't like one of the challenges? Then don't do it. Want to count a book for a challenge even if you didn't finish? Will you complete the entire challenge before moving on to the next? Or jump from challenge to challenge? Will one book count for only one task? Or can one book count for multiple tasks? An additional challenge could be to count a book for as many tasks as possible and see how few books you can read to fill this book. Start your adventure today and record each literary milestone as you go.
