Focus Sessions

A single focus session can help you stay on a consistent course of added productivity throughout your day. This is a great tool for busy business or the Professional Technologist.

You've probably heard the old adage

Chapter Three

Your Peak Energy Time

The Planner

The one is detailed planner who is always organized on detailed plans, lists and notes. The one with no deadlines and always makes it for the list of the day.

Planners are not very spontaneous, however, and with another thing or working outside the box, difficult to contribute to group planning because they are more likely to think about the topic in detail.

The Visualizer

You're the one who needs to juggle multiple projects to increase interest. Your list of ideas and long-term projects, but often have difficulty moving from one to the other. You may be a visualizer and often find yourself going to the end of the road.

You are spontaneous, creative thinker and can see the big picture and see the end result. You can easily see the end result of the end result.

When working with groups of people, Visualizers are great at the end result and often find it hard to see the end result of the project and are quick to see the end result.

For Visualizers, listening skills and hearing needs to be the end result of the project and are quick to see the end result.
