David Bailey Tears:

David Bailey David Bailey, 2015 Determining the perfect exposure time for a photographic print in a traditional darkroom can be a time consuming and tedious process and the irreverent David Bailey has never had much patience for it Normally a photographer makes a number of test strips each showing different exposure times but Bailey has always just intuitively torn off strips of the unexposed paper to find the desired result Over the decades Bailey has kept his test tears re fixing and washing them to preserve the unpredictable and unique qualities of these accidents This book contains a selection of Baileys tears which transform some of his most famous motifs into fascinating abstract pictures through their torn edges and myriad tones Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent, 2018-09-22

Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City James Clifford Kent, 2018-09-22 Aesthetics and the Revolutionary City engages in alternative ways of reading foreign visual representations of Havana through analysis of advertising images documentary films and photographic texts It explores key narratives relating to the projection of different Havana imaginaries and focuses on a range of themes including pre revolutionary Cuba the dream of revolution and the metaphor of the city frozen in time The book also synthesizes contemporary debates regarding the notion of Havana as a real and imagined city space and fleshes out its theoretical insights with a series of stand alone important case studies linked to the representation of the Cuban capital in the Western imaginary The interpretations in the book bring into focus a range of critical historical moments in Cuban history including the Cuban Revolution and the Special Period and consider the ways in which they have been projected in advertising documentary film and photography outside the island Vanity Fair, 2016
