Catholic Ethics In Today's World:

Catholic Ethics in Today's World Jozef D. Zalot, Benedict Guevin, 2008 In Catholic Ethics in Today's World Drs Jozef Zalot and Rev Benedict Guevin OSB address what they describe as a sense of confusion expressed by many about what the Catholic Church really teaches on a range of ethical topics as well as why it teaches what it does In an accessible and engaging presentation the authors demonstrate how the Catholic Church approaches many of the social sexual and medical challenges that face today's world communities and they discuss the moral principles the Church provides for the formation of our consciences with respect to these challenges In the text the authors fully recognize the breadth of dialogue among moral theologians regarding the teachings of the Church and that there is disagreement among faithful Catholics about issues facing the world today Upholding the value of critical dialogue among different parties in this text Zalot and Guevin wish to offer a baseline from which people can understand what the Catholic Church teaches on a particular topic so that they will be able to critically evaluate the teaching on its own merits and in light of the critique of others Catholic Ethics in Today's World is an excellent starting point for reflection on the ethical challenges we face in the contemporary world

A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it's adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it's adequately spiritual Bernard Haring integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with

Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturatism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics ,2007 Pastoral Care to and Ministry with LGBTQ Youth and Young Adults Arthur David Canales,2022-06-14 Pastoral Care to and Ministry with LGBTQ Youth and Young Adults weaves sound theology and solid practice to offer insight and introspection about helping and ministering to some of our most vulnerable in our congregations and or parishes LGBTQ youth and young adults Moreover the book provides pragmatic pastoral strategies that can be successfully implemented into Christian youth ministries and young adult ministries The book examines traditional understandings of homosexuality and transgender in Scripture from a marginalized perspective The book analyzes current theological and pastoral practice and moves the needle to offer new insights and fresh ideas regarding pastoral care to and ministry with LGBTQ young people This book is perfect for youth young adult ministers lay leaders pastors parents and academics who are interested in LGBTQ issues topics and ministry The book invites students scholars and practitioners to understand the subtleties and nuances of providing pastoral care and ministry to God s queer young people For anyone serious about LGBTQ young people this book is a must Markunović, 2024-11-20 The Catholic Social Teaching CST Rome Exchange Advanced Training Experience CREATE is the new initiative of the Faculty of Social Science FASS at the Pontifical University Saint Thomas Aquinas Angelicum in Rome. Currently focused on Central and Eastern Europe CEE it provides ways for students and experts in Catholic social teaching CST to access resources and training in Rome so as to develop their knowledge and their capability in using CST for resolving problems faced in their local reality. Catholic social teaching Rome Exchange Advanced Training Experience starts from two basic ideas: 1. Catholic social thought is a powerful resource in the mission of the Church today but often it needs to be more widely known and better operationalised in practical situations. 2. Rome is a centre for the development of Catholic social thought by bringing students and experts to Rome for short or longer stays we can help them to improve their knowledge of CST and practical skills in implementing it while ensuring that they stay connected with their home region. CREATE is an integrated set of 5 activities: Expert 1. Council EC a network of professors and experts from different Catholic Higher Education Institutions CHEIs in the region meeting once a year in Rome. 2. CREATE Prize CP an annual competition starting in 2021 for an original essay by a young researcher student from the CEE on some application of CST to society. 3. Salamanca Process Scholarships SP doctorate scholarship and post doc scholarships for Dominican candidates sisters and brothers from Central and Eastern Europe as part of the Salamanca Process of the Dominican Order. 4. Laudato si Scholarships LS doctorate and post doc scholarships for young people from the CEE region to develop their research in their home countries and institutions with support from FASS professors. Laudato si scholars will come in Rome regularly over a 2-3 year period in order to take advantage of the resources provided by the FASS and the central Catholic institutions in Rome. 5. CST Toolkit Scholarships TX a semester long programme of courses in CST January to June starting in 2022 for CEE students at the masters or doctorate level.

The Catholic Moral Tradition Today Charles E. Curran, 1999-04-05 The Catholic tradition has always tried to explain its theology in a coherent and systematic way but the great changes and tensions existing within Catholic moral theology today have made it difficult to develop systematic approaches to what was once called fundamental moral theology. Now a leading scholar active in this field for forty years offers a synthesis of Catholic moral theology set in the context of the broader Catholic tradition and the significant developments that have occurred since the Second Vatican Council Charles E Curran s succinct coherent account of his wide ranging work in Catholic moral theology points out agreements disagreements and changes in significant aspects of the Catholic moral tradition His systematic approach explores major topics in a logical development the ecclesiological foundation and stance of moral theology the person as moral subject and agent virtues principles and norms conscience and decision making and the role of the church as a teacher of morality Curran s work condenses and organizes a large amount of material to show that the Catholic theological tradition is in dialogue with contemporary life and thought while remaining conscious of its rich history Of great interest to theologians for its broad synthetic scope this book is also a thorough introduction to the Catholic moral tradition for students and interested readers including non Catholics

Catholic Perspectives on Medical Morals

Edmund D. Pellegrino, J. Langan, John Collins Harvey, 2012-12-06 CATHOLIC PERSPECTIVES AND CONTEMPORARY MEDICAL MORALS A Catholic perspective on medical morals antedates the current world wide interest in medical and biomedical ethics by many centuries 5 Discussions about the moral status of the fetus abortion contraception and sterilization can be found in the writings of the Fathers and Doctors of the Church Teachings on various aspects of medical morals were scattered throughout the penitential books of the early medieval church and later in more formal treatises when moral theology became recognized as a distinct discipline Still later medical morality was incorporated into the many pastoral works on medicine Finally in the contemporary period works that strictly focus on medical ethics are produced by Catholic moral theologians who have special interests in matters medical Moreover this long tradition of teaching has been put into practice in the medical moral directives governing the operation of hospitals under Catholic sponsorship Catholic hospitals were monitored by Ethics Committees long before such committees were recommended by the New Jersey Court in the Karen Ann Quinlan case or by the President s Commission in 1983 8 9 Underlying the Catholic moral tradition was the use of the casuistic method which since the 17th and 18th centuries was employed by Catholic moralists to study and resolve concrete clinical ethical dilemmas The history of casuistry is of renewed interest today when the case method has become so widely used in the current revival of interest in medical ethics ll
