The Franco-Calgaricians Robert A. Stebbins, 1994 Many of North America's francophones live and work in large anglophone cities immersed in overwhelmingly English speaking environments yet they manage to keep their language and culture alive In this study Robert A Stebbins finds that francophone culture in Calgary flourishes primarily through leisure activities Stebbins was a participant and an observer in Calgary's French community between 1987 and 1992 In 1992 he conducted unstructured interviews in French with eighty five adult respondents focusing on their patterns of everyday personal and collective life His book reveals that in large cities such as Calgary francophone populations form communities through social and cultural organization rather than geographical association In these circumstances family household school and leisure activities are key to maintaining French language and culture and promoting individual and community development This is the first ethnographic study of the francophone community of a major anglophone urban centre in Canada Stebbins presents an objective but sympathetic analysis in a fluid and engaging style His work provides a prototype for the analysis of francophone communities in anglophone cities BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Calgary Herald Style Book Calgary Herald (Firm), 1959 Summer Sun & Winter Wind Gladys Muir, 2019-07-25 In Summer Sun Winter Wind her third autobiographical book Gladys Muir recounts her childhood growing up in Calgary Alberta in the 1920s and 1930s This e book edition has been produced using the text and photographs from the original 1994 print edition All proceeds from the sale of this book go to the Wrinch Memorial Foundation a non profit organization providing Health Education Social and Housing Programs and Services in the Hazelton BC area University of Calgary Permanent Collection, 196? Calgary, 1920 Permanent Collection, the
