Das Vermchtnis Roman:

The Roman Hannibal Claire Stocks, 2014 This book offers a new reading of Hannibal in Silius Italicus Punica and provides fresh insight into how the Romans remembered their past The Death of the Soul in Romans 7 Emma Wasserman, 2008 The monologue of Romans 7 has proved central to the Christian West where interpreters such as Augustine and Martin Luther have made the text into a paradigm for the plight of mankind torn between the demands of God's goodness and its own sinful nature Emma Wasserman argues that the monologue can be better contextualized within certain intellectual discourses alive in Paul's day In light of certain Platonic traditions about the soul the monologue emerges as the voice of reason or mind describing its defeat at the hands of passions and desires represented as sin Especially as developed by Philo of Alexandria Platonic traditions of representing extreme cases of immorality account for a number of difficult features of the text Such traditions can account for the metaphors of enslavement imprisonment warfare and death the representation of the passions as sin and the association with the body members and flesh the Platonic language about mind and the speaker's role in reasoning reflecting and judging the problem of the law in the first part of the monologue verses 7-13 and the plight of self-contradiction in the second 14-25 The reading thus finds that the speaker is reason or mind recounting its discovery that it cannot put any of its good judgments into action because of the dominance of the passions Individual and Community
