Miklos Jako,2012-03-29 Computers are extraordinarily useful but also frustrating as hell So often you cannot logically figure out how to do something instead there is some arbitrary piece of information you need to already know Or there are particular buttons you need to click in a particular order otherwise you get nowhere Or you can t remember how to do something because it s been a while since you did it last Or bad things happen constantly out of the blue and you can t figure out how to fix them This manual is an effort to fill in all those gaps Topics are arranged alphabetically Step by step procedures are given with the assumption that the reader is coming to the problem with only minimal computer experience
