Confessions Erotiques:

, The temple of venus Hans-Jürgen Döpp, 2021-06-30 Amsterdam rejoices in more than simply its famous canals and its celebrated collections of the works of Rembrandt Vermeer and Van Gogh. It has a museum dedicated to the Goddess of Love which welcomes no fewer than 500 000 visitors a year. From all over the world people come in their thousands to this unusual establishment known as The Temple of Venus. First put on display together in 1985 by Monique van Marle and her father, this collection of erotic works is exceptional for the quality of the objects exhibited: its engravings and its photographs of yesteryear. Far from being a focus for voyeuristic prurience, the Museum is intended to be understood as a serious centre for the history of erotic art. This book takes us on a guided tour of this fascinating place devoted to a fascinating subject.

Issues highlights the publications that have revolutionized magazine design and examines the concepts behind their format: page designs, covers, words and images. David Carson's Raygun, Terry Jones' ID and Visionaire are three powerful examples that have broken traditions and forged images that are aesthetically individual and unique. Around the world, countless magazines are published on a regular basis and the competition to attract readers is extremely fierce. But why is this compact, portable and highly accessible medium so effective in disseminating information to the public? And why, contrary to predictions, has it not been eclipsed by the world wide web? Issues answers these questions and also demonstrates clearly why the digital encounter has proved unequal to the delightfully tactile and spectacular reading experience afforded by print. If a magazine is a storage place for explosives, then Issues is a complete arsenal of the most highly explosive magazine designs ever created. "Jacobsen's" Index of Objectionable Literature
